

Online Facilitator Training

What to Expect

Rainbows Online Facilitator Training offers many different types of learning styles and interactive activities, such as exercises, quizzes, branching into specific areas of interest, downloadable resources for review, and much more. Our intention is that you will have a great learning experience and receive accreditation as an official Rainbows Facilitator.

Our Facilitator Training includes:

- an extensive presentation on grief,
- instruction on active and
- attentive listening skills, and
- streaming video enabling participants to evaluate small group sessions,

Frequently Asked Questions Database

This feature allows trainees to ask/search questions and answers to gain e follow-up support from Rainbows Headquarters and is easily accessible anytime during your training experience.

Timing

We anticipate participants will be studying this training format for approximately 4-5 hours, depending on the comprehension and needs of each individual.

For instance, all seven Rainbows programs are covered in the training, but a participant may only choose to review one or two, or all of them, according to their preference.

Important Details

Rainbows Online Facilitator Training is available 24 hours a day/seven a week.

From the date of Registration, participants can complete their training all at once, bookmark it, log out and sign in again anytime during their 14 day training period.

If trainees have not completed their Facilitator Training after two weeks (14 days) their Registration will be canceled and their training fee is non-refundable.

This training has been designed to impart personalized understanding of Rainbows philosophy and methodology and includes a closing examination of learning content. Therefore it is not designed to be shared online in groups.

Only one Rainbows Facilitator Training Certification, CEU or other credits will be granted for each program participant.

Cost

$125.00 per participant which includes a Free Download of Facilitator Listening Module.

Each participant is asked to sign up and register for their own training program. Many do so with their personal credit card and submit reimbursement from their own Rainbows site – OR -

We can accept payment through the Rainbows office via a site Purchase Order (we will invoice your site). Just contact us to arrange a Coupon Access Code to cover the number of trainings you need.
